

Laurie Levenson Brunch A Big Success

Laurie Levenson, left, guest speaker at October's brunch at the Braemar, greets chapter officers Nomi Ron, treasurer, wearing badge, and Ethel Kaplan, special events coordinator, right. Prof. Levenson gave an enlightening talk on her Innocence Project at Loyola Law School.

San Fernando Valley Chapter board members, from left, Nomi Ron, Sandy Schuffman and Marcia Gould welcome guests to the chapter's brunch featuring guest speaker Prof. Laurie Levenson.

Thoroughly enjoying the Laurie Levenson brunch at the Braemar were, from left, Carol Corvisier, Sharon Billone, Gertie Sanders and Margie Bauer.

Chapter members Miriam Mandell, left, and Shirley Rosenberg check in at the reception table for the chapter's special brunch featuring a talk by Laurie Levenson, holder of the Chair in Ethical Advocacy at Loyola Law School.

« Chapter members enjoyed a scrumptious brunch at the Braemar Country Club before hearing Prof. Laurie Levenson discuss "How Innocence Projects Give People Back Their Lives."